My PhD in a snapshot (write one for each one of your three papers)

PhD student:
Paper title:
First version: last version: paper to be finished in

Research Question	Literature Background
State clearly one or two research questions about your work	Cite the 5 papers/books which best represent the background of your work and the theory you are going to use
1.	1.

Data/cases	Methodology
Describe clearly which data/cases you will use and how and when you will collect them	Describe clearly which methodology you will use

Possible difficulties	How does it fit with research in your group?
Describe the (max 5) difficulties which you think you will have to face in your work	Explain how your work updates something which has been done in your group or represents a new piece of research
1.	-

Why is it original?	Who has done similar things?
Explain briefly what is original/nice/interesting about your research and why reviewers should like it	Cite the (max 5) works which have done similar things outside your research group.
-	1.

My papers (list here the most relevant works you have written):